Direct Debit

If you are moving within the area: If you already pay by direct debit within the High Peak, you do not need to set up a new one when you move house. We can transfer the direct debit to your new property.

If you are moving out of the area: Your direct debit will be cancelled when your account is closed. You will need to set up a new direct debit with your new local authority.

If you would like us to transfer an existing High Peak Direct Debit to your new address, please let us know here:
