

22nd March 2023

The scaffolding has been installed and works have started. The pointing works are being done across both buildings and the windows at Ponden Homes have been removed and are being replaced with traditionally detailed sliding sash windows.

